Announcement: The CCD will not have drop-in hours during Spring Break.

Qualify for Free Professional Attire
Dress for Success empowers women to achieve economic independence by providing professional attire, a network of support, and career development tools. Career Gear promotes the economic independence of low-income men, providing financial literacy training, a network of support, job-readiness, and essential life-skills training.

Both organizations are gender inclusive. To learn more, see if you qualify, or to request services, schedule an appointment with Andrew Tessmer via Handshake.

Unpaid or underpaid summer internship?

If you have secured (or, are in the process of securing) an unpaid or underpaid summer experience, you may be eligible to apply to The 2018 Owl Edge Summer Experience Fund. This fund, created through generous donations from Rice alumni and friends, provides a limited number of qualified students with funding up to $5,000 to help with transportation and/or living expenses incurred as a result of participating in an unpaid or underpaid summer experience.
